A Message from Fr. Jim . . .

- 1) I want to offer a word of CONGRATULATIONS to our young people who are being confirmed this afternoon here at St. Mary's. It is a privilege to welcome Bishop Richard Sklba who will preside at the Eucharistic celebration. I pray that the gift of the Holy Spirit that these students receive will continue to grow stronger each day of their lives that they may have the strength to live out their faith and be good examples to those who will follow.
- 2) I also want to offer a word of appreciation to all who made "Casino Night" such a success. This annual event is a major fundraiser for our grade school and helps tremendously with the needed funds to operate our excellent grade school. I want to offer a particular word of gratitude to all of the chairpersons for their leadership and making sure that the event ran so smoothly. It was gratifying to feel the support of the local community for our desire to carrying on the teaching mission of the Church by offering a quality, Catholic education.

May grace and peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with all of you!

Father Jim Volkert

The Divine Mercy

The complete Week Four reading on "The Divine Mercy" is available on the internet at thedivinemercy.org/library/dm101.php. If you do not have access to the internet you may pick up a copy of the article from the office.

Week Four: Moses and the God of Mercy. When Moses went up to Mt. Sinai again with two new tablets of stone, and the Lord wrote upon them once again, He prefaced this second giving of the Law to Moses in a way that shows that His mercy is of the essence of the mystery of who He is (Ex 34: 4-9).
