DO NOT BE AFRAID

Did you notice? Today is called the "Second Sunday of Easter," not the "First Sunday after Easter." Our celebration of Easter is not over. These Sundays of Easter continue to present the mystery of Jesus Christ's victory.

The readings begin with the "signs and wonders" abounding in those earliest days. Sick people lay in the street, hoping that at least Peter's "shadow might fall on one or another of them." Then, in a powerful passage from the book of Revelation, the visionary falls down "as though dead" upon seeing the victorious Christ. But Christ extends a gentle touch: "Do not be afraid . . . once I was dead, but now I am alive forever."

In the Gospel, that same Christ appears and breathes on the disciples, and gently leads Thomas to believe. This Christ--more powerful than any evil force, victorious over death itself--touches us and whispers, "Do not be afraid."

Scout's honor and determination: The Food Pantry in Port Washington, located in the basement of St. Peter Church, needed a cargo lift to transport food. But the project was to cost a seemingly unsurmountable $60,000. Here's where Mikayla Schowalter stepped in. But what could a teenage Girl Scout do to raise such a large amount of money? You'd be surprised. Read how she tackled this project in the April 11 issue of your Catholic Herald. Thanks from Catholic Central High School

CCHS hosted its 11th Annual Spring Fashion Show at Hawk's View Golf Club in Lake Geneva, on Saturday, March 16th. 157 guests, 26 raffle items and 11 designer handbags filled the hall. This year's event raised close to $5,000 for the operations of the high school. Models of all ages were once again included in this year's show, and Jodi Karow, Mistress of Ceremonies, did a fantastic job of keeping the crowd's attention and helping the show run smoothly. A special thank you to the many Catholic Central parents, donors, models and volunteers who helped carry out this event.
